UNIFORMITY IS IMPOSSIBLE

House Committees Comment on the Present Assessment Law.

TAXPAYERS JUSTLY AGGRIEVED

Pavorable Report on the Bill for Immediate Revision and Equalization-Demand for Equality in the Burdens-To Postpone Collections Until Next Year.

Mr. Cobb. of Alabama, presented to the House yesterday the report of the Committee of the District on the bill providing for the immediate revision and equalization of real estate values in the District of Columbia with several mendments. The report says:

"The existing law relative to the mode of as sessing for taxation the real property of the Dis-trict of Columbia is defective, and the attempts to improve it have produced widespread disto improve it have produced winespieza satisfaction and complaint. Every effort to secure uniformity in assessments has falled, and the taxpayers of the District are justly aggreed at the inequality in values as the same are returned by the assessors. Two causes have contributed to the results which are complained of tributed to the results which are complained of so bitterly.

"One cause is the fact that under existing law the assessments are made by persons temporarily employed for that purpose, and the difficulty of securing for this reason the services of assessors skilled in the determination of the value of property. The other cause is the fact that each assessor acts independently of the other, without any prescribed rules which would tend to preserve uniformly in the estimation of values throughout the District. To these causes may be added one other, namely, the limited time allowed to the board of equalization for correcting the inequalities found to exist in the returns made by the assessors.

"It has hence resulted that the last assessment, which under existing law is to remain in force for three years from the date it was returned, is unjust, and in many cases oppressive, from the glaring inequalities it contains and the gross errors in the estimation of values. It is the purpose of this bill to correct these errors, prevent the injustice arising by reason of them, and to provide abystem permanent in character, under which a fair and equal assessment shall at all times be possible.

SERVICES OF COMPETENT MEN.

SERVICES OF COMPETENT MEN.

"To these ends it is provided that there shall be three permanent assistant assessors, to each shall be given a salary sufficient to command the services of men competent to perform intelligently the important duties assigned to them. They, with the assessors of the District, are to constitute a board of equalization. It is believed that these assistant assessors, acting in concert, as they are required to do, will have in view, while making assessments, the value of each lot or parcel of real property as it is related to all the other real property in the District, so that the most important consideration of all others in fixing values for purposes of taxation shall be attained, namely, equality in the burdens of faxation among the citizons and property holders of the District."

After a further discussion of the merits of the bill recommended, the report says:

"Whilst your committee do not pretend that the measure proposed is in all things perfect, they present it in the confidential belief that it contains the elements of a proper and acceptable tax system, and in view of the pressing command the services of men competent to per-they present it in the confidential belief that it contains the elements of a proper and acceptable tax system, and in view of the pressing needs now existing for legislation in this behalf they recommend its passage with certain amendments. These are as follows:

"The assessors must have been residents of the District for five instead of ten Fears; the term of service of assessors is fixed at three years instead of being held at the will of the Commissioners, although a removal for cause may be made as any time, and the date is fixed for the first revision as January, 1895, instead of August of this year."

SUSPEND PRESENT COLLECTIONS.

Another amendment provides that any other or future collection of taxes on real property and improvements thereon during the current year of 1894 be suspended, and taxes now due on said property and improvements under ex-isting law in the month of November of this year shall be due and collected at the time and in the manner provided in the bill for the collection of manner provided in the bill for the collection of taxes on real property and improvements thereon for the first half of the year 1886.

In place of section 5, providing that property shall be assessed according, to the number of squares and lots and fractions thereof according to their superficial area, and lands outside the dity used for agricultural purposes by the acre and suburban lots by the square foot, except where agricultural lands are platted and recorded, the following is substituted:

ceribed in the assessments as they may deen best."
In section 11 additions to or improvements of $500 instead of $200 in value are to be subjected to a fresh assessment, and the time for reductions of assessment where these have been damaged or destroyed is fixed at six months after the completion of the assessments. Section 15, providing for repeal of all isws inconsistent with the new bill, is made section 15 of the amended bill, and a section is substituted for section 15 in the old bill providing that the board of assessors shall also constitute the excise board of the District and perform the duties thereof, and that so much of the act regulating the sale of intoxicating jugors in the District of Columbia of March I, 1908, as imposes that duty upon the Commissioners shall be repealed.

A PERILOUS WOOING

From the time that Aslang was quite grown up there was no longer any peace or quiet at Husaby. In fact, all the handsomest young fellows in the village did nothing but fight and quarrel night after night, and it was always worst on Saturday nights. Aslang's father, old Canute Husaby, never went to bed

The Sangerbund will be the guests of the Arions of New York, and will put up at the Sturitovant House.

The proceedings were opened last night with a big torchlight procession, and beginning this afternoon there will be five performances, in which 10,000 voices will participate.

There are three classes arranged, and prises offered to each, as follows: First class, first prise, a Steinway grand piane; second prize, a solid silver cup, thirty inches high; third prize, a solid silver wreath. Second class, same prizes as in first class. Third class, first prize, a Steinway square piane, first and second prizes, same as in the other two classes.

The Washington Sangerbund will compete in the second class, the Arions in the third. There will be six societies in the competition in the first class, twenty in the second, and twenty-three in the third. The first and third classes will sing to-morrow afternoon, the second class on Monday.

All Washington is awaiting the result of the contest with interest, in the hope that at least two of the prizes will come this way.

The successful societies will be announced at a plende to be given June 26 at Ulmer's park, Gravessend beach, and the prizes will be then awarded.

President Cleveland promised the committee appointed to wait on him by the Sangerfest that he would attend the great gathering at Madison Square Garden if circumstances permitted. He finds that the condition of public business at this time is such as to make it inadvisable to undertake the trip to New York, and Private Secretary Thurber says the President will therefore be unable to attend the Sangerfest.

London added to the selling by disposing of some small lots. A new lower level was established in the stock to-day, which touched 45, a decline of 14 from last night. The ciose was 34 above the lowest. Chicago Gas receded to 714 in the early trading and then on purchases for the bull pool in the shares rose 144, closing at a reaction of 34. Missouri Pacific on a renewal of the reports of bad crops in its territory sold down 14, recovering 34.

The trading was heavy in tone for an hour after midday, and then for another hour the speculation was fairly strong. During the last hour the market was unsettled, but at the close after midday, and then for another hour the speculation was fairly strong. forced. It is understood that a warrant will be issued for Monroe on this charge.

The defense had several witnesses on the stand, and the efforts made were to establish the fact that fastelle Beach, the complainant, bore a bad reputation for truth. The defense also tried to establish an alibi. Dr. Leon was the last witness put on the stand.

Mr. Birney argued for the government, and Messrs. S. D. Truitt and E. G. Miles spoke for the defense. O. B. Barrett will speak to-day for the defendant.

The case will likely go to the jury some time to-day.

PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS. HAMPERED BY A POOR LAW

Health Officer Compelled to Play a Big Game of Bluff.

HAMMETT ON THE SITUATION

He Cannot Make People Connect Their Premises with Sewers or Abate Stagnant Pools Unless They Choose-Powerless to Enforce Sanitary Measures.

It is a lamentable condition of affair when the authorities of the health department are com-pelled to resort to swagger and bluff to secure from citizens concessions that are imperative for the general health of the city. Nevertheless, this is the condition of affairs just at present, and Health Officer Hammett, in speaking of the matter yesterday, said:
"We are handicapped in several cases by improper legislation, and you can readily see that when we see what is imperative for the assurance of the public health we will do all in ou ower to secure it. The result is that we have developed into bluffers who prey on the ignorfinds that the condition of public business at this time is such as to make it inadvisable to undertake the trip to New York, and Private Secretary Thurber says the President will therefore be unable to attend the Sangerfest.

THE LAW IN THE CASE.

Dr. Hammett said, in speaking of the matter "We obtain our power to enforce the law relative "We obtain our power to enforce the law relative to these closets from section 20 of the health laws of the District. Now the law reads as follows:

"That any privy within the cities of Washington and Georgetown, or the denselv populated suburbs of said cities, including Uniontown and Anacostia and Mount Pleasant, in the District of Columbia, constructed of any other material than brick, stone, or wood, or which is not provided with a sufficient box, bucket, or vessel for the reception of fifth, and the inside of which is not at least five feet from the line of any adjoining lot, and at least two feet distant from any street, lame, alley, camp, or other public place, or private passageway; and any privy so constructed that it cannot be conveniently approached or cleaned, or in such a manner that each and every vault, box, or vessel thereof is not made light and close, so that the contents thereof cannot escape therefrom, except as may be permitted by a passageway or conduit under ground for the purpose of carrying away such contents of such box, vessel, or vault into any common sewer or drain, is hereby declared a nuisance injurious to health; and any person who shall create or maintain or continue such a nuisance injurious to health; and any person who shall create or maintain or continue such a nuisance and shall fail, after due notice from this board, to abate or removy the same, shall upon conviction be fined not less than 25 nor more than 25 for every offense.

"Now," said Dr. Hammett, "rou can see where we are handicapped. As everybody knows, these closets are a menace to public health, but what is to be done? There the law gives them the absolute right to maintain a disease-breeding nuisance on their place if they only box it up. If we were to lay sewers all around them and them saked them to connect with the drains they could refuse if they wished and I could not lay a hand on them.

POWERLESS TO ACT. to these closets from section 20 of the health laws

POWERLESS TO ACT. "No one is more bitter against these spots than I am, and last year I started a war on them and succeeded in getting about 1,200 of them wiped out. Whenever a man saw fit to fight me I have out. Whenever a man saw fit to fight me I had to simply lay down my hands. We took several cases into court, but the law was so evident that we were at once thrown out unceremoniously. I can slaw a hundred instances where it was imperative that these spots should be eliminated for the general health of the public, and after being defeated in our attempt to get rid of them, cases of diseases have been directly traceable to them.

them. "I was accused up there in the society of leniency in dealing with cases that were really grave. I will give you a sample of that leniency. Some time ago up here in the anortheast section I found two very bad spots. I notified the owners to get rid of the closets of make a sewerage connection. The ten days elapsed and no attention with the matter. At the end of that time was paid to the matter. At the end of that time was paid to the matter. At the end of that time a prominent real estate man came in and asked me what I intended to do owing to the fact that my orders had not been compiled with. I said, that I intended to get a warrant and take the matter into court and have the oftenders fined. Then he told me that the persons in question were two old women who had not a dollar in the were two out women who has not a solar in the world and lived on a scanty income of Ei a month. I told him that the facts did not alter my intention, and that the health of the city demanded it. Then he lyughed at me and showed me that law which I have just quoted. Then I saw that my bluff would not go any farither, and I was compelled to back down. That was my lawlester.

"Now take the subject of stagnant pools. No one is more bitter against them than I am, but I am powerless. I have succeeded in having a great many of them filled up and in other instances I have been defeated in my plane. No great many of them filled up and in other in-stances I have been defeated in my pians. Now take this law. If reads all right as it says:

"Section 7. That stageant water upon any ground or lot within the cities of Washington or Georgetown, or the more densely populated sul-urbs of the same, and any marshy land, the same being made so by defective drainage or otherwise, are hereby declared nuisances insame being made so by defective drainage or otherwise, are hereby declared missances in-jurious to public health; and any person caus-ing, creating, or maintaining such missances, who shall after due notice from this board re-fuse to abate the same shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than $10 nor more than $100 for

"Men have come to me," said Dr Hammett. with this law in their hands and ask why I have not done so and so in getting rid of certain singmant pools in the District. Clearly the law gives me the power, but to any one who will look back to the preamble as indersed by Con-gress they will at once read the following section:

"Resolved, That the ordinances of the late board of health of the District of Columbia, as revised, amended, and adopted, he legalized, save sections 7.9, and 14, which sections are not because legalized.

save sections 7, 2, and 14, which sections are not hereby legalized.

"Now you can see where that leaves me," said Dr. Hammett. "I have not a leg left to stand on, and then the result as I see these things size needed so badly and I then resort to bloff.

"I will tell you of one instance. When Coxey's army took up its camp on the lot at First and M streets southwest. I ordered them to drain the lot. They did. Then in desperation I ordered them to move, for I knew the place was a pest hole. They remonstrated and stated that they had obeyed the statute by filling up the place and draining it. I turned camly to the owner of the place, and said:

"How many fortains did you put in?" He replied that he had put in only one. I then asked him how many lots he had there. He told me there were eighty loss all surveyed and divided off. Then I said that he must lay eighty sewers

Thor Nesset was the only son of a poor cottager, and yet folks said that it was he who went oftenest to visit the farmer's daughter at Husaby. Of course old Canute was not true; that, at any rate, he had not seen him there. Still they smilled and whispered to each other thayloft, whither Aslang had many an errand, he would have found Thor there.

Sufferers from Rupture, Varicocele, or any disease of the pelvis, nervous, or sexual system can have an examination by one or by all of these experienced specialists free of charge. The practice of Dr. Parker, 114-6 street northwest, specialist in hernia, varicocele, and nervous diseases has grown to such enormous proportions that he has been compelled to secure the services of skilled physicians and surgeons to aid him in his great work of curing the army of sufferers that apply to him for help. The great reputation Dr. Parker has earned from the Almost countiess number of ruptured and varicocal patients he has cured, and from the hundreds of trusses he has removed from ruptured humanity and consigned to dark closets never to torture their victims again, has brought him a patronage in Washington that has seldom been equalled by any specialist in this country. The best clitzens of our city and of the whole country who are suffering from hernia, varicocele, and other abdominal diseases are his patrons. The cure of these diseases has been reduced by Dr. Parker to a mathematical certainty, thus he never experiments and thus he suffers no fall-ures. Careful, scientific treatment is assured to all his patients and cures guaranteed. Raptures and varicocels cured without operations, pain, or detention from business. Nervous or mental depression, impaired memory, fulling or lost power, blood poison of recent or long standing, and all diseases of the sexual system treated and cured. When asked what steps he intended to take to remedy the evil Dr. liammett said:

"I expect to se ure legislation from Congress. From a new is." the plumbing bill I can force people erecting new houses to put in proper running water drains. That will tide me over for awnite. I have locked up in my office the reports of all typhoid fever cases in the Distriction the past two years. There is, lesides, the report on each case as to where it originated. No living person has ever seen that report and will not until I place it in the hands of the District Committee of the House. It is the strongest kind of evideace, and if It don't secure me the power I wish then I am at a loss to know what will."
